Powder Hound Express Dog Sledding Tour

Product Code: DM-POWHOW

Dog sledding vacations in Canmore are a perfect way to enjoy panoramic views along pristine trails with the Canadian Huskies. Admire the bewitching hills, charming bridges, tranquil valleys, and breathtaking ice-covered lakes as you lead your team of dogs through the Canadian wilderness. You have the option to choose between the self-driven and the guide driven sleds. A 2 hours tour on the Goat Pond pristine trails. Instruction and introduction of 30 minutes, one hour of thrilling dog sledding experience, and 30 minutes of campfire with treats and hot beverages. Self-driven sleds let you drive your own dog team sans an instructor.

Dog sledding in Canada offers you an ideal opportunity to know the Canadian Huskies. The beautiful and friendly Siberian Huskies are reliable partners for sledding and they love their job. You will enjoy cuddling these well groomed and amiable huskies during the exciting dog sledding adventure. Powder Hound at Spray Lakes is one of the most demanded dog sledding tours in Canmore. However, if you wish a longer tour, we also offer a longer sledding experience with 3 to 4 hours sled time and an optional campfire lunch.
