DAY 2 – Heart of Montreal Motorcoach City Tour.

Your tour of Montreal includes the sights and sounds that will leave you with an unforgettable memory of this beautiful city. Your tour starts with a photo stop at the iconic Notre Dame (admission not included), in the historic district of Old Montreal. Built in 1688, the Notre Dame is the oldest stone church in North America. With its two bell towers, soaring arches, and large stained-glass windows, intricate architecture and exquisite artwork the church promises to deliver some breath-taking photographs to take back home. Drive through the residential neighbourhood straight to the buzzing Financial District, peppered with iconic buildings, top of the line restaurants, and busy surroundings.

The tour makes its way to Old Montreal with its ever evolving 400-year-old district that blends some of the city's oldest and newest architecture, tastes and trends. Historic buildings, fashion boutiques and trendy cafes makes this part of the town most interesting.

Stop to marvel at the unique architectural heritage at the Old Port, a major trading hub from 1610s to 1970s. With a variety of dining, shopping, and entertainment options as well as cultural events, a walk down in port area makes for an interesting afternoon.

Your tour also gives you a great outside view of the Olympic Stadium, the largest covered amphitheatre in Quebec and home to the world's tallest inclined tower and venue of the 1965 summer Olympics. Once an iconic site in the world of sports, this multipurpose facility is home to a thriving Biodome and a large Planetarium and plays host to cultural and sporting events around the year. The final item on your tour of Montreal is the chance to soak in panoramic views from the observation point from Mount Royal Park, a sprawling public park on a hill within the city. Part of an ancient volcanic complex, this park offers stunning views of the city, a variety of fun outdoor activities, and stands testament to the city's history, geography and biodiversity.

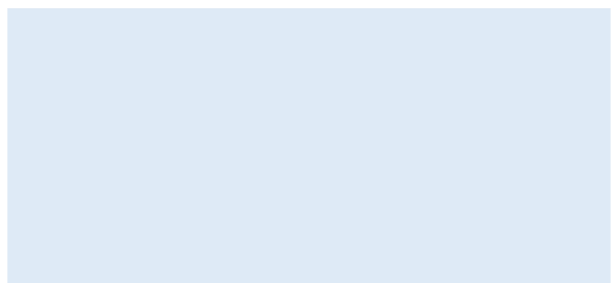

Overnight in Montreal, PQ.
